

Sesame Street Live "Can't Stop Singing"

“Can’t Stop Singing” dances, laughs, and romps into Louisville at the Brown Theatre, running Friday, February 21 – Sunday, February 23, 2014.

When Elmo decides to play around with Abby Cadabby’s magic wand, the Street is utterly bewitched by the powerful spell of MUSIC ! Watch Big Bird, the Count, the Cookie Monster, Grover, and all of your Sesame Street friends succumb to the rhythm !

What Sesame Street brings to family fun can not be disputed. It is ALWAYS a good time! The kids are dancing in the aisles, the parents are smiling while watching the kids dancing in the aisles, and I even saw a few Brown Theatre employees tapping their toes. The storyline, mixed with a vibrant, exciting musical lineup, has everyone in attendance wondering what just might come next.

And Sesame Street even keeps the parent's attention by throwing in a few re-mastered songs that they may remember. It is a wonderful feeling to see children dancing to a tune from the 80s with such conviction!

Do not miss Sesame Street when they come to your town. You will experience not only a fantastic, family outing, but you will make a memory that will last a lifetime!

Kendyl Rae

••••• Ticket prices: $15, $22, $32 (Gold Circle) & $52 (Sunny Seats).

