

Ca$h On Delivery

Showing at the Derby Dinner Playhouse through June 29th, Ca$h On Delivery is a comedy about a con artist who has tricked the welfare office into sending hundreds of checks for imaginary people that he claims are his tenants. When he finally realizes that he has taken his luck about as far as he can, "canceling" these checks may seem to be a bit harder than he had anticipated.

When I say that this is one of the funniest things I have seen on stage in a LONG time, it is actually an understatement. I laughed until my sides hurt, and then I laughed some more. The crazy antics were reminiscent of an / skit, with the characters digging themselves deeper and deeper into the absolute chaos that is unfolding all around them.□

And the cast is magnificent!□ Cary Wiger and J.R. Stuart are ridiculously funny, running about covering up one lie with another, while Tina Jo Wallace seems constantly on the verge of a breakdown.□ As always, two of my favorite Derby veterans, Elizabeth Loos and David Myers, are just brilliant.□ Although their parts are not large, their moments on stage are absolutely unforgettable.□ However, John Vessels sends the crowd into uncontrollable stitches of laughter.□ His timing is immaculate, as he delivers one punch line after the next with infectious humor.□ The cast is rounded out with Paul Kerr, Marina Hart, and Janet Essenpreis, also adding to the delightful havoc of Ca$h On Delivery.

Ca$h On Delivery is written by Michael Cooney, and directed and produced by Bekki Jo Schneider.
